

Short biography William J. Christensen (1973)

United States citizen, resident in Wilen bei Wollerau (CH)
Married, 1 child
Head of Group Marketing (until 31.12.2008)
Head of Group Division International Sales (from 01.01.2009)

William J. Christensen graduated with a Bachelor of Arts (major: economics) from Rollins College (USA). In 1995, he started his career as a project manager in Switzerland for Rieter Automotive Systems. He held subsequent positions in finance, sales and general management with Rieter Automotive both in Switzerland and North America. He left Rieter in 2001 to pursue an MBA at the University of Chicago. Upon graduation in 2003, William J. Christensen joined J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., in New York, as an Associate in the Mergers & Acquisitions department. In November, 2004 he returned to Switzerland joining Geberit as Head of Strategic Marketing. He relocated to Chicago (USA) in February, 2006 to become President & CEO of Geberit's North American business. William J. Christensen has held his current position, Head Group Marketing, since August, 2007.

The Board of Directors of Geberit AG has appointed William J. Christensen Head of the Geberit Group's new Group Division International Sales, effective 1 January 2009.